Q. What type of payments are accepted?

A. We only accept cash or check.

Q. What is the difference between a Food Handler's Permit and a Food Safety Manager Certification?

A. It is required for at least one person in your business to have their Food Safety Manager Certification. If you have your Food Safety Manager Certification you do not need a Food Handler's Permit - the Food Safety Manager Certification covers it all. Anyone else who plans to work with your business and handle food in the commercial kitchen will be required to have their Food Handler's Permit.

Q. What are the hours of the commercial kitchen?

A. The Potluck will be available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, for a total of 168 hours per week. 120 hours of the week (71% of hours of operation) will be dedicated to serving low income entrepreneurs. The remaining 48 hours will be allotted to the general public on a first come first serve basis.

Q. What is the square footage of the commercial kitchen?

A. 533'

Q. How does scheduling work?

A. We have an online scheduling system. Business owners will be able to schedule for the next 3 months, on a first come first serve basis. If a business owner does not have access to a computer, they can call the kitchen manager and the kitchen manager will schedule on their behalf. We want to make sure our clients get the most out of their scheduled time, so there will be no overlapping shifts.

Q. How do I get my health permit?

A. Depending on what your product is, you will either contact the Utah County Health Department or the Utah Department of Agriculture and Food. It's best to speak with each agency directly since each business will need a different permit depending on what is being produced.

Q. What appliances are available for use?

A.

- 2 6 burner stoves
- 2 ovens
- 2 convection ovens
- 1 reach-in refrigerator
- 1 reach-in freezer
- 2 20 qt stand mixers
- Proofing cabinet/hot holding box
- 4 prep tables
- Assortment of bowls and other utensils

Q. Is there a minimum amount required for liability insurance?

A. There is a minimum of 1,000,000 of commercial liability insurance coverage, with The Potluck listed as an additional insured.

Q. Is there a place for food trucks to dispose of wastewater/greywater?

A. No, we do not have the proper way for food trucks to dispose of wastewater. If you have a food truck and would like to use our kitchen as a commissary, you will need to find another place to dispose of your wastewater.

Q. I still have questions. Who do I contact?

A. Questions can be directed to Jennifer Morgan.
